

- 1) American English pronunciation practice. The following video is a case study on how to pronounce American English through a routine dialogue. Access the video on this link and practice along.

- 2) WHO vs. WHOM. Do you know how to differentiate them? Have you heard of WHOM? Watch the video on this link and complete the following sentences with who or whom.
 - a) This is the girl whom I talked about.
 - b) who is fooling whom?
 - c) who is coming alongside her?
 - d) That man, who won many Nobel Prizes, decided to donate his fortune.
 - e) That man, with whom Suzy was dating, got married to another girl.