

- 1) Reflexive Pronouns: Watch the video on Reflexive Pronouns. Then, correct the following sentences, whether necessary.
- a) She prepared all the dinner by herself
  - b) We decided to travel to Portugal by ourselves
  - c) Put yourself in her place! CORRECT
  - d) You guys should put yourselves in their place.
  - e) Many people are trying themselves to learn English CORRECT

2) Subjunctive (I wish...): The following video is about subjunctives. Watch it here and then choose the best option to fit in the gaps.

- a) I wish I were working. (am/was/were)
- b) She wishes she could play the piano. (can/could/will)
- c) Daniel wishes he were better on video games (is/was/were)
- d) I wish I had done this lesson before. (were done/had done/had doing)
- e) I wish I could have met her in that time. (can had met/could have meet/could have met)

3) Dialogue Practice: Practice the following dialogues with a partner, or with yourself. To check pronunciation, listen to the audios corresponding to each dialogue.

Dialogue 1: Are you ready to order?

Waiter: Are you ready to order?

Customer: I'd like the menu, please.

W: Here you are, sir/ma'am... Are you ready to order?

C: Yes, I am. Can I start with tomato soup? Then the salmon and steak, please.

W: What steak would you like: rare, medium or well-done?

C: Medium, please.

W: And would you like vegetables or salad?

C: Vegetables, please.

W: Would you like any wine?

C: Yes, white, please..... . Waiter! Can I have the bill, please?

W: Here you are.

C: Is service included?

W: Yes, it is.

C: Can I pay by credit card?

W: Yes, of course

Dialogue 2: Going to the bakery

A: Would you do me a favor?

B: Of course, what would that be?

A: I'd like you to buy some bread at the bakery. Oh, I also need two or three cartons of milk. Would you mind going there for me?

B: No, I wouldn't... Anything else?

A: No, just that... How much do you have?

B: Fifteen or seventeen bucks... I don't know for sure, anyway it's enough for buying what you need.

A: The car key is at the key holder in the living room.

B: Got it... I'm on my way...