

- 1) Listening and pronunciation practice: Watch the video on the link below. Turn on the subtitles in English. The speaker talks about multitasking vs. monotasking. He is Italian, and his English accent is different from American English. After watching the video, listen to the following audio and repeat the pronunciation. Finally, re-watch the video with subtitles off and compare the pronunciation from the audio with that of the video.

Video: Multitasking vs. Monotasking

- a) Could you find any difference in the pronunciation of the words: efficient, huge, world?
- b) There's a difference between what's written in the subtitles and what's spoken in the part:
 "How beautiful it is to lose ourselves in these little streets"
 According to what the speaker said, what word replaces the part in bold in the line above?
- love
 - lost
 - lock

Video: six confusing words - small & little, big & large, tall & high

- 2) Watch the video above, then complete the questions:
- a) I'm 27 years old, but my _____ brother is 37. (large / big)
- b) That tree isn't very _____, it's only 2 meters _____. (high, tall / tall, tall / big, big)
- c) I'm a _____ concern about the test. (small / little)
- d) São Carlos is _____ than Santos. (taller / higher)
- e) Daniel is a _____ person, he weighs 130 kg. (tall / large)

3) Watch the video above. Then, associate the sentences on the left column to the definite adverbs of frequency on the right column:

1. On Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays, I take English classes.	() daily
2. Every year, she goes on an international trip	() once a year
3. Everyday, he walks his dog around the neighborhood.	() monthly
4. Every year in May, an event happens in my town.	() three times a week
5. We have yoga classes everyday, from 4 to 5:30.	() twice a year

6. Every month, we join our friends from college time and go out.	() once a day
7. Every year on February 27 and February 28, we have outdoor activities at school.	() annually

Video: TH sound - Practice tip

4) Listening and pronunciation practice: Brazilians usually have problems to pronounce the TH sound. Watch the video above. Then, use the video to practice the sequence of words below:

- another
- father
- weather
- myth
- faith
- bath

Video: THR pronunciation \(three/through\)

5) Listening and pronunciation practice: Another struggling Brazilians have is the THR cluster sound. That is is present in the word THREE, for example. Watch the video above and practice the sentence below:

He threw the baseball through the window at three thirty